

Our cinema club sprang from sitting around watching movies together on video and wanting to encourage an armchair atmosphere in which to watch them projected onto the big screen. The aim is to showcase independent short films alongside a cult/classic/vintage feature-length film — basically anything which is of artistic interest to us.

The programme starts with a selection of narrative or character driven shorts that sit comfortably alongside the main feature — films such as A Taste of Honey, Black Narcissus, Odd Man Out, The Tenant, The Pumpkin Eater, Poor Cow and others. We end each evening with a section of visual works which are viewed with music while the audience has a chance to drink and chat about the films with each other and the filmmakers.

We aim to put together a programme once each month, but this is dependent upon the availability of the venue and so sometimes is less frequent. We post out a flyer 2 weeks before each show with details of the coming programme. We encourage submissions from anyone who's made a film. Production values are not as important as substance. To submit a film for selection simply fill out the form below.

SHORT FILM SUBMISSIONS

We request short films no more than 30 minutes long, though in some cases we will consider longer films if they fit with a particular programme. Films should be in English or have subtitles. Preview copies should be submitted on PAL VHS standard play cassettes.

If your film is selected you will be notified via email or post and asked to supply a tape in the screening format you wish to be presented. All submissions should be accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope in order for your tape to be returned.
